U.S.A. vs. Paul S. Hendler

Docket No. 1:11CR00110-1

Petition on Probation and Supervised Release

COMES NOW JON HANSEN, PROBATION OFFICER OF THE COURT, presenting an official report upon the conduct and attitude of Paul S. Hendler, who was placed on supervision by the Honorable J. Garvan Murtha sitting in the Court at Brattleboro, on the 21st day of May, 2015, who fixed the period of supervision at three years, and imposed the general terms and conditions theretofore adopted by the Court and also imposed special conditions and terms as follows:

The defendant shall make restitution payments in an amount of at least 10% of the defendant's gross monthly income until the financial obligation is paid in full.

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open any additional lines of credit without approval of the probation officer until the financial obligation is paid in full.

The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to any requested financial information until the financial obligation is paid in full.

The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. §1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

Any unpaid restitution shall become a condition of supervised release.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT AND FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:
(Please see the Report of Conduct and Request for Summons for details of the alleged conduct)

- 1. Mandatory Condition: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

On June 6, 2019, the defendant was arrested by the Chittenden Unit for Special Investigations (CUSI) and charged with Sexual Assault, in violation of 13 V.S.A

3252(1). Evidence in support of this violation is an affidavit provided by the arresting agency.

2. Standard Condition #2: The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer.

While on supervised release, the defendant failed to submit a supervision report for the months of January 2018, May 2018, and July 2018.

On August 9, 2018, the defendant was instructed to start reporting in person to the U.S. Probation Office on the first Friday of every month to submit the previous month's supervision report, income verification, and restitution payment. Following that date, the defendant failed to report as instructed for the month of January 2019, and reported late on the following dates: April 9, 2019, May 13, 2019, and June 11, 2019.

3. Special Condition: The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to any requested financial information until the financial obligation is paid in full.

While on supervised release, the defendant failed to provide information to verify the amount and sources of income reported in his monthly supervision reports. The defendant failed to provide verification of his income for the following months while under supervision: September 2017, October 2017, November 2017, May 2018, June 2018, September 2018, October 2018, November 2018, March 2019, April 2019, and May 2019.

4. Special Condition: The defendant shall make restitution payments in an amount of at least 10% of the defendant's gross monthly income until the financial obligation is paid in full.

While on supervised release, the defendant has been instructed to pay monthly restitution. The defendant has failed to consistently pay restitution, as evidenced by a report summarizing the defendant's restitution payments. The defendant failed to pay restitution for the following months under supervision: September 2017, October 2017, December 2017, May 2018, June 2018, July 2018, and August 2018.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER the issuance of a summons so that Paul S. Hendler may appear before the Court to show cause why his term of supervised release should not be revoked.
